Seven Generations of Memory

For 35 years, Cambex has been the premier provider of enterprise server and mainframe memory. Through seven generations, up to the latest high-end servers and mainframes, Cambex has continued to provide our customers with the highest quality and value.

STOR™ Series Memory for HP: The Proven Alternative

Cambex has installed over 500 billion bytes of STOR series memory at mission-critical sites. We know the meaning of reliability and availability and are constantly "raising the bar" to meet the demands of the 24x7 global market. Cambex is a member and active participant in the HP Developer and Solution Program (DSPP). STOR memory has been developed for virtually the entire range of HP, Compaq, and Unix servers.
